What GolfNow Is Really Costing You

The barter model looks free on the surface. The numbers tell a different story.

$37,000

Average annual barter cost per course

NGCOA / ORCA study, ~400 courses

39.6%

Of all rounds generated zero revenue

Brown Golf, 3-year internal data

70%

Of barter tee times booked during peak hours

GolfNow industry analysis

"Every time GolfNow books a barter tee time during your Saturday morning, you just worked for free."

We Flipped the Model Completely.

GolfNow charges courses. TeeAhead charges golfers. That single change rewires everything.

GolfNow Takes From You

- ✗ Barter tee times at full green fee value
- ✗ $2.49-$3.49 convenience fee per golfer
- ✗ Your course data sold to competitors
- ✗ Peak-hour inventory they control
- ✗ Multi-year contracts with penalties

VS

TeeAhead Gives Back

- ✓ $0 barter — your tee times stay yours
- ✓ $0 booking fees for your golfers, always
- ✓ Your data is yours. Always. Forever.
- ✓ You control every single tee time
- ✓ 30-day cancel clause. No long-term contract.

WHY GOLFNOW CAN'T MATCH THIS

GolfNow cannot go free — abandoning barter destroys their revenue model. Lightspeed and foreUP cannot add consumer loyalty without a company-level pivot. This is a structural moat — not just a feature advantage.
